

M E 345, Fall 2014

Who is Grading What?

Prepared by Professor J. M. Cimbala, Penn State University
Latest revision: 18 November 2014

Note: If you have any questions or disputes about your grade on any particular item (homework, lab report, exam, etc.), please talk to the person who did the grading for the item in question. If you cannot resolve the issue, see Professor Cimbala.

- Quizzes and Exams: Professor Cimbala grades all quizzes and exams.
- Participation: Professor Cimbala keeps track of class participation. Your lab section's TA keeps track of your lab participation
- Lab Precalcs: The TAs grade the lab precalcs – each TA grades his/her own sections' precalcs.
- Lab Reports: The TAs grade the lab reports – one TA grades a given lab report for all sections to ensure consistency.
- Homework: The TAs grade the homework – one TA grades a given HW set for all sections to ensure consistency.

Lab Reports and Homework are graded according to the following schedule:

Note: This schedule may change as the semester progresses – sometimes the TAs swap grading assignments based on their own schedules and availability. If so, this page will be updated.
